Lots and lotsa fun

Clare Milford Haven, Nick Wentworth-Stanley and 700 friends hit Cowdray Park for a 'rock 'n' polo' weekend. Checked in with pink-glitter wristbands, guests got stuck into Mojitos and Cosmopolitans. Everyone dug deep into their pockets at an auction to raise money for The James Wentworth-Stanley Memorial Fund, a charity founded to help raise awareness of the suicide rate among young people. Then the dancing kicked off: Kenney Jones, Gary Brooker, Mike Rutherford and Ringo Starr wowed the crowd; Jennifer Guerrini-Maraldi got the boys overexcited in her tight silver trousers. Much to the disappointment of many of the female partygoers, the polo players went to bed early – they had to be on form for the match the next day.
